THE 2006 SEASON

Introduction

The 1st XI finished in a disappointing mid-table position in Division 2 and failed to confirm their potential at both individual and team level. The need for a strike bowler (or two) to support the ever-willing Adrian Carr (33 1st XI league wickets) was never more noticeable, and although Faisal Mir bowled with aggression to take 20 wickets, he was short on luck and consistency. The only really redeeming factor was Jamie Jouning's batting which has matured to an art form. As a 'home grown' player, his reliability was remarkable as he garnered 649 league runs at an average of 59. He was supported by the returning Perth batsman Brayden Sutton (518 runs) and Ben Hartman (368) who, although invariably entertaining as ever, has matured into a serious batsman.

Jamie Jouning was awarded the Hawker Trophy for his achievements, and a tribute to his batting which won the game at Wembley was summed up by skipper Alvin Durgacharan:

"Believe me, it was one of the best innings I have ever seen. Jamie Jouning played a superb 112 not out to see us home. He had a bit of luck to get a hundred but his sheer determination and with everything else going against us on the day we fully deserved it. He hit 4,6,6, to finish the game off. In my opinion the innings was even more special as he had no partner come in and make a quick 20 nor was there any partnership over 40 meaning that J had to ensure he survived whilst keeping us up with the rate against the regular fall of wickets for the entire 50 overs. We finished 211-9 in 50 overs."

The 2nd XI won the Second Division title and so commence 2007 in Division One. This was achieved largely through the formidable batting of Andy Hoskin (406 runs), and solid backup from Paddy Robinson (385) and David Woffinden (330), with consistent innings from Jeremy Sambrook. Middlesex County League titles are won more through taking valuable wickets than creaming runs on flat tracks, so Arshad Bhatti's 37 wickets at a parsimonious 14.37 were key to the side's success and deservedly earned him the League Bowling Award. Adam Vinson made a welcome return to the club as an effective and competitive all-rounder.

The 3rd XI ended five points from safety and suffered relegation to the Second Division for 2007. Richard Marshall scored the most runs (310) while five others exceeded 200. As is often the case, wickets were hard to come by though Fawad Mullahzada with 22 wickets (and on his day some tempestuous batting displays) and 'Bunny Singh' were the most successful bowlers.

In the Middlesex 1987 League, the 4th XI maintained a comfortable mid-table position in Division 2. The major contributors were, in batting, Ricky Gunn (291 runs), Mel Dowsett (236) and Akshay Jain (232). Mike Millar began to show his potential by exceeding 200 runs and averaging over 40. Only four bowlers took ten or more wickets, and of those, it was really only the senior partners Stuart Cradock and Len Stokes who were really capable of putting the brakes on the opposition batsmen.

The need for new effective playing membership has never been more critical if Southgate CC is to restore its reputation as a leading North London Club.

Development XI

2006 was a mixed season, spoilt by a number of fixtures being called off at the last minute either through bad weather or by oppositions being unable or unwilling to raise a side. Nevertheless, the third season of the Development XI still provided opportunities for 14-17 year-olds to come to terms with the longer game of 40 overs per innings.

Only six of the planned twelve matches were played of which one was won and five lost.

The batting disappointed this year, the only notable scores coming from Phil Dunnett 39*, Owen Bradley 40 and Shivan Vaya 34 and 31.

Spirited bowling performances came from Partha Dave, Shivan Vaya, Michael Knight and Mark Golding while Safwan Harif persevered with ultimate reward. The wicketkeepers Phil Dunnett and Daniel Pyzer-Knapp both kept well, and contributed with the bat.

Southgate Colts

By the end of the school summer term the number of active colts between the ages of 7 and 15 totalled 132. With the limited number of qualified staff, this was a big undertaking

A powerful Under 15s side won their league division, with runs coming in abundance from Owen Bradley, Ramanan Loganathan and Phil Dunnett. Bowling was at times wayward but the excessive extras given away merely seemed to provide the batsmen with a target with which to apply their batting talents. In the last two games over 300 runs were scored without the loss of a wicket.

The Under 13s finished 4th of six in their division, Mo Gandhi being the major batting force, supported by Partha Dave. Karim Hassanin impressed with both bat and ball and Ashley Sivarajah, whilst continuing to progress as an all-rounder, was especially industrious in the field.

The Under 11s finished in a mid-table position but could probably have done better with more applied concentration. Josh Berman progressed well with 121 runs and took 19 wickets at 4.26, including 5-0 vs Botany Bay, and Anup Trivedi was no less impressive with 144 runs and 15 wickets at 5.20 (including 5-9 vs Edmonton). Jeremy Lovell and Will Temple showed encouraging glimpses of future promise.

The Under 10s were largely dependent on the batting of Shiv-Raj Sharma who was the leading scorer with 161 runs, to which he added a further 34 with the Under 11s, and Rahul Shah who scored 110 runs for once out and bowled with accuracy, as did Jack Jacobs.

At the Annual Supper in November, we were very pleased to welcome former Middlesex county captain Ben Hutton who presented the awards.

Colts Awards 2006

The Under 15 'Colt of the Year' award was won by Owen Bradley. Other performance awards were awarded to Mo Gandhi (Under 13), Josh Berman (Under 11) and Shiv-Raj Sharma (Under 10).

Endeavour/“most improved” awards were made to Kushal Poojara, Paul Lassman-Lichtenstern, Will Temple and Harry Pinnock.

Club caps were awarded to Owen Bradley, Paul Lassman-Lichtenstern, Karim Hassanin and Rahul Shah.

As always, Southgate CC is grateful to all our volunteers, particularly John Williams and Colin Fox who looked after the Under 13 and Under 15 teams respectively, Geoff Slipper, and to the various fathers who lent a hand on Monday evenings or scoring at matches. My especial thanks go to John Williams, of course, who in addition to indoor and outdoor training and match managing, continues to maintain and purchase the kit, arranges engraving for the awards and travels wherever necessary on behalf of the Colts Section.
