THE 2015 SEASON

Ricky Gunn

This year's publication is perforce slimmer than usual as reports from the various sides have failed to filter through but hopefully everything of a statistical nature will at least serve as a reliable record and may be of some interest to more than just a few.

The outcome of Southgate's re-entry into the Premier Division may have been initially viewed as anything from unbounded excitement to "here we go again" cynicism. With the opening three league matches recording successive defeats, the pessimists were shaking their heads as history threatened to repeat itself. Spirits, however, rocketed when top-of-the-table Richmond were up-ended and fellow promotion achievers Indian Gymkhana were similarly despatched, to complete the opening tranche of 50-over games which for the first time was to open (and close) the season.

At this stage the club was also triumphing in the ECB Royal London National Knock-Out and Middlesex Cup competitions. Six further league wins were recorded which included Ealing (twice), Richmond (again) and Hampstead (eventual league winners), the last achieved through an outstanding bowling performance from our prodigal son Fawad Mullahzada, having returned to Southgate from Twickenham. His return of 8 for 20 saw Hampstead subside to 64 all out (only 49 off the bat) and a very early finish. A final placing of seventh was almost unjust in a tight mid-table field but it at least showed that Southgate was back on the map and meant business. All congratulations to skipper Faisal Mir and his trusty players, a team whose honest solidarity was emphasised in that no batsman averaged even 26 or individually scored more than 68 in one innings. However, the superb bowling of Sri Lankan Under 19s player Lasith Lakshan (42 wickets at 15.97) and Ashley Sivarajah (39 at 20.79) was supported by some stupendous fielding, notably 15 catches by Tom Edrich and 30 dismissals by wicketkeeper Phil Dunnett.

Lasith's pleasant nature and happy countenance will be missed and we wish him continued success back home in Sri Lanka. His memorable 171 in the Middlesex Cup match at Winchmore Hill contained no fewer than 13 sixes, a club record. In all games he scored the most runs (872) and took the most wickets (62), as befits an overseas guest player. It is also pleasing to note that our 2014 player Kusal Mendis opened the innings for Sri Lanka in the final two test matches in New Zealand in January 2016.

The 2nd XI can only rue any missed opportunity for promotion into Division Two, having finished the season on equal points with the second-placed side North London who were promoted with winners Wembley. Matt Stratten was the leading run-scorer with 393 at 28.07 and Waqas Khan scored 342 at 31.09. Rob Johnson, Matt Joseph and Adeel Saeed all passed 250 while newcomer Declan O'Leary scored 252 in three innings for only once out including a monumental 130 at home to Harrow. Ravi Desai was again the most successful bowler taking 46 wickets at 16.32 while another new arrival, Ben Elders, took 23 wickets at a phenomenal average of 9.78.

With the 1st and 2nd XIs competing so well, it was disappointing that the 3rds were not able to exploit their pedigree to throw off the shackles of 1987 League cricket. The 3rd XI finished 5th in the 1987 League Division One, one place lower than last year and over 60 points behind the leaders Osterley who have now made it to the Middlesex County League, 3rd XI Division 3. With only seven wins, and with eight matches yielding one or no points, promotion was still a distant dream. Skipper Adrian Carr took 27 wickets in ten matches (his services were equally required by the 2nd XI for the remaining games) but his remarkable 8-16 away at Old Actonians (including a spell of 7-0, becoming 8-1 in a space of 25 balls) was an exceptional piece of bowling. However, Adrian was the only bowler to maintain any consistency or penetration and while Shiv-Raj Sharma (411), Ali Lynch (401) and Shoaib Zulfiqar (391) piled on the runs, dismissing oppositions was invariably a problem.

The 4th XI maintained the momentum so enthusiastically generated in 2014 and finished a creditable 5th. Once the school exams were out of the way in mid-June, availability was especially good from the junior end of the club. The re-emergence of Partha Dave after three years at university and Michal Wloch brought a torrent of runs in the upper order coupled with the arrival of new members like Rishi Kent and Abi Madhavan meant the side was well balanced under the guidance and stability of Doug Gordon, Shaff Babwah and Sal Syed. In fact the superb bowling of 15 year-old Liam Babwah saw him, like Partha and Michal, disappear into the 3rd XI after a very short time. However, nobody exceeded Roy Marett's 17 wickets although the bowling was shared amongst no fewer than 30 different players.

The Middlesex Development Under 21 League side under captain Mark Hughes gained some confidence with three wins against two defeats and one match abandoned. However, they failed to emulate the sides of the two previous seasons by qualifying for at least the plate competition which the club had previously won on both occasions.

Retiring president Peter Jouning is to be congratulated on being the recipient of the Heartbeat of the Club Award for dedication to club cricket at the 2015 OSCAs ceremony at Lord's.

Career records have once more been updated and appear at the end of this Review.

The 65th Church Times Final held at The Walker Ground in September was won by the diocese of London who beat Guildford by 17 runs.

Our thanks go once more to our long-time sponsor David Gakhar, managing director of our sponsor Underpin & Makegood whose continued generosity has helped maintain the club's financial standing.

Here's to 2016!

Southgate Colts

The continued strategy of hiring additional external coaching staff maintained a good number of regular qualified coaches on the ground on training nights. Again, however, the pressure on the three regulars for managing the matches was unchanged and we desperately need club members to step forward and take some of the weight off the few. Ironically for 2016 there are no obvious resources to field an Under 11s side in terms of projected numbers so there is no immediate need for a replacement in that area. Nevertheless, if the section is still surviving in a year or two's time, those personnel will be very much in demand. The penalty of losing the colts section will be the club's automatic expulsion from the Middlesex County League where the club's 1st XI maintains a place in the Premier Division.

By the latter stages of the summer, the colts numbered 75 between the ages of 7 to 15, a small overall reduction against the previous year.

Each of the three competitive sides maintained their position in Division One although the Under 11s will now sacrifice that by virtue of withdrawing from the competition. This is because there are insufficient 10 and 11-year-olds available or prepared for the demands of the competition. In any event we have no volunteer to manage the side which needs to be resolved by 2017.

Once again, the club is highly indebted to parents Amit and Shruti Patel who, with enthusiastic support from other mums, produced a delicious curry meal and a veritable treat of desserts. This event and the Under 15s barbecue raised a tremendous £535 for the club's funds. These had been immediately preceded by the Under 11s and the Under 15s playing games against their respective parents where some concealed parental talent was very apparent.

64 colts, parents and coaches attended an enjoyable annual colts' Awards Supper in October. Jeremy Dangerfield made a presentation to Ricky Gunn to mark his stepping down from the role of colts administrator after 14 years which was gratefully accepted by the totally surprised beneficiary. Many thanks to Jeremy for his surreptitious organisational powers and the parents' generosity.

Under 15s

The Under 15s finished 3rd in a division of 5 but were only one point away from tying for 2nd place. Once again, this qualified them for the play-offs.

Captained by James Dangerfield, the under 15s enjoyed a broadly successful season in Division One. The squad, which has been together since U11s, continued to perform well as a unit, maturely captained by James Dangerfield, and played 8, won 4, lost 3, and one abandoned through rain. Third place in the league secured a play-off, which was won by 10 wickets, but unfortunately the team couldn't take its place in the last 16 in Middlesex due to holiday commitments.

James Dangerfield, Henry Thompson, Tom Clark and Liam Babwah played regularly in the adult league sides and also made appearances in the U21 Development XI.

Jeremy Dangerfield

Under 13s

The U13 Colts had both a successful and highly enjoyable season.

Whilst they missed out on three rained off matches they finished 3rd in Division 1, two wins behind Winchmore Hill but comfortably ahead of Potters Bar.

Whilst there was a core of very good players we were still able to offer matches to over 20 boys, with second place possibly only evading us as we received just a single point for a rained off game when our rivals were able to play and secure 2. At the end of the season we made some progress in the County-wide knockout stages before finally falling to a very strong Sunbury XI.

On an individual level the progress made by a number of players was, from a coach's perspective, very rewarding.

Whilst continuing to develop as a seam bowler Ollie Gakhar also become a very consistent top order batter and was undoubtedly the player of the year. Liam Patel and Harry Showell batted consistently and Sulaiman Mirza and William McLoughlin (a year younger than most) showed occasional glimpses of brilliance. It was disappointing that Tom Stanton was a little inconsistent with the bat but he must understand that talent alone is not enough: application is just as important if not more so.

The bowling attack had the benefit of much variation. Sulaiman beat many batters for pace, there was Ollie's fast left arm, Gautam's accurate medium pacers and Alan Babwah quite simply has the ability to bowl anything he chooses. Alan also played for adult teams later in the season.

And we should not forget the fielding for which Charlie Bates, Anish, Liam and Aadil all excelled.

Last but certainly not least I must mention the "Lads v Dads" match and Shruti's splendid curry as they capped-off a memorable season.

Adrian Carr

Under 11s

The Under 11s finished 4th out of six, but behind three very strong sides. The batting lacked depth and was inconsistent in any event. On a good day, when everything went right, performances like Alex Stanton's 54 and 5 wickets for 8 runs at home to Potters Bar were a joy to behold. Alex scored the most runs, 117. Although he was always a potential threat with both bat and ball, other successes were, however, hard to come by. Fred McGill had five not out scores between 11 and 21 (but inexplicably three ducks) and totalled 81 runs at an impressive average of 27 and Luke Brett with limited availability averaged 21. The most complete bowler in terms of accuracy and pace was 9-year-old Rohan Belavadi for whom a promising future beckons. The surprise of the season was Jack Eustance-Brougham who persevered diligently with his leg-breaks and who, on one remarkable occasion at Winchmore Hill, mesmerised the opposition to take 6 wickets for 6 runs. Jack's only difficulty, not uncommon with aspiring spinners of this type, was the inability to maintain sufficient consistency of control to be a regular match-winner but his enthusiasm and desire to succeed should stand him in good stead.

Under 10s

Doug Gordon continued to introduce the basics of cricket to a mixed group aged from 6 to 10 (one crept in under the usual age limbo bar) with assistance from the admin officer when not entertaining parents or Middlesex Cricket Board inspectors.

Joseph McGill (9) shows much promise Samuel Giles shows exceptional talent for a 7-year-old.

Colts Awards 2015

At the annual presentation supper on 2nd October, awards were presented to the following young players:

Performance:

Under 15 Henry Thompson

Under 13 Ollie Gakhar

Under 11 Alex Stanton

Endeavour:

Under 15 Max Eustance-Brougham

Under 13 Alan Babwah

Under 11 Jack Eustance-Brougham

As ever, many thanks on behalf of the club to all those helping with the colts. The voluntary efforts of club players Jeremy Dangerfield, Adrian Carr and Doug Gordon were assisted by some professional support thanks to Ian Leach and Seb Rae and Monday evenings looked particularly organised and industrious this year. Miles Stanton maintained a strong presence training the Under 11s, and providing practical support on match nights.

Roy Engeham

1926-2016

Roy Engeham died on January 1st 2016. He was elected as a playing member in 1956 and was a formidable right-hand opening batsmen. From 1964 until 1972 he was captain of a strong, popular and highly social "3rd XI" (in reality the 4th strength side at a time when the club ran a 1st XI, Extra 1st XI and 2nd XI). In 1973 he captained the 2nd XI for both league and friendly fixtures. He served on the General Committee from 1968-1972 and in 1973 chaired the Cricket Committee. He was elected as a Vice-President in 1973.

It was then that Roy embarked on a totally different lifestyle. He bought a boat "Christmas Rose" with the ambition that he and his wife Pat sailed round the world. Roy then duly completed his Masters Certificate and Ship's Masters Certificate. They navigated two return trips across the Atlantic to Florida and the West Indies respectively and visited Pat's sister in Norway. He bought a gun quite literally to protect himself from pirates in the Caribbean.

After these adventures they moved to a house in Bovey Tracey in Devon to be near to elder daughter Annie but when she and her husband decided to go to Australia (returning a few years later) they moved to Scotland where Pat died suddenly in August 1990. A couple of years later Roy returned to Bovey Tracey. Tommy and Margaret Lambe maintained strong links with him for the rest of his life. Son Andrew lives near Dartford but the youngest, June, went to live in Australia in 1976 where she has a grown-up family.

Below are some spontaneous tributes from contemporary players, items from which were used in June's eulogy to her father at his funeral at Exeter on 18th January:

"Roy was the first captain I played under in a Southgate senior side. I will remember him fondly for his cheerfulness, selflessness and great encouragement." Geoff Morgan

"Roy, together with Tommy, was the first senior cricketer at SCC who I can remember fondly. He captained the 2nd XI League side in 1973 (with Tommy supporting him). I can remember being encouraged to develop my game. He was a thoroughly decent chap and I was personally disappointed when he moved away at what seemed only a few years after I first played with him." Alan Jenner

"Roy will be an everlasting memory of my early days at Southgate Cricket Club. He was always kind and supportive, and his batting ability, captaincy skills and bottomless generosity will never be forgotten." Ricky Gunn

Deaths of Honorary Members

John Bruscini, honorary Southgate CC member and former president of Alexandra Park CC, died on 25th January 2015.

Stan Brigg, honorary member since 1962 and original owner of the local Briggs sports shops died on 27th January 2015, just three weeks short of his 98th birthday and after 74 years of marriage. He was a founder member of the Old Minchendenians FC in 1934.

Yvonne Whitaker, died on 4th November. Yvonne had been married for 54 years to popular Southgate honorary member and Colts administrator Alun who had died in 2003. Her funeral at New Southgate was heavily supported by Southgate and Cockfosters Cricket Clubs amongst many other friends and relations.
