THE 2021 SEASON

Introduction

The written record of the 2021 season is a somewhat abridged edition compared with previous years. Time and – sadly – lack of available accurate information have contributed to dampening the enthusiasm of embarking on this annual project. Much of the text is taken or adapted from the official annual report to members issued at the time of the 2022 AGM. The prospect of unnecessary repetition coupled with continuing disappointing results from the club's lower sides have contributed to a reduced commitment to maintaining records of performances.

The best thing about the 2021 season was that it took place pretty much as normal after the compromise half-season of 2020 where no league promotion or relegation took place. All league fixtures were fulfilled, and with minor inconveniences in the early part of the season such as social distancing and bringing one's own tea, cricket was played as it has been in the years before the pandemic.

On the field league results were mixed. As has been the case for a few years, the 1st XI held their own and won as many as they lost and were in with a chance of promotion throughout the year, but ultimately fell short, leaving a feeling of having under performed. While they were never going to surpass a very strong North London team, they had the ability and resources to come second, but didn't quite make it. A consolation was that they won the Middlesex Trophy, the club's first cup win since 1982. It was good to see strong sides being fielded on Sundays and they won some very tight matches through determination and spirit. More disappointing were the 2nd and 3rd XIs who were out of their depth in their respective divisions and were relegated.

In the 1st XI League, Tom Edrich scored 434 runs (average 31.00), Phil Dunnett 406 at 45.11 (including two consecutive centuries to round off the season) and Mike Stevens 378 at 31.50 while newcomer Shaun Gomes showed good promise. Dave Woffinden was once again the pick of the bowlers with 25 wickets at 14.24 a time, followed by a tight group of Ravi Desai, Jack Upton, Daragh Edwards and Mike Stevens who all took between 20 and 23 wickets each at between 16 and 18 runs apiece.

The 2nd XI, captained again by Scott Ellis, suffered a continuation of the previous two seasons, coming up against sides for which we seldom had comparable playing strength and were relegated. Scott himself led the batting with 340 runs at 37.77 and Kunaal Kankate with 327 at 40.87. Only Josh Holmes reached the 20 wicket target while Ben Elders, the man who might have made the difference, found himself bolstering the 1st XI. However, 18-year-old Will McLoughlin took 14 wickets at 17.42 and looked an eminently sound prospect at senior level.

The 3rd XI courageously turned out for another season against invariably vastly superior opposition. With the enforced absence of their captain and prominent player Dan Pyzer-Knapp, their spirit was as commendable as ever, being deprived of what would have been their only win by the Twickenham III last pair needing an unlikely 34 to win.

Jeremy Dangerfield is now Chair of the Walker Cricket Ground Trust. We at the cricket club are immensely grateful for his work on the Trust to maintain the Walker Ground and in making sure the interests of Southgate Cricket Club are taken into account.

Jeremy also managed the building of new nets, thanks to funding by the McLoughlin family in memory of Peter, the Grange Farm Centre Trust, The Walker Trust and donations from members ('the Friends of Southgate'). The nets were well used by junior and senior members and are a vital addition to the facilities. They were formally opened on the day of a match held between a McLoughlin Family XI and a Club XI.

The long-term plan to strengthen the club is to develop our players through the colts. With this objective, a Cricket Development Officer was hired. Jim Clarke started a programme of introducing youngsters from the age of five to the club and establishing strong relationships with local schools. There were signs of success in the increased numbers of colts, particularly this very young age group. However, this is a long-term strategy and the club is keen to accelerate results in this area.

The Club was once again sponsored by Underpin and Makegood, a local firm specialising in foundation construction. We thank them again for their continued annual support.

In addition, estate agents Williamson Dace Brown have made a specific donation in support of the colts' section which was used to valuable effect for coaching and training kit purposes.

The most significant loss was the passing of Martin Fletcher, a monument of Southgate cricket for some 80 years for whom a fuller appreciation appears a little later and in whose memory Jennifer has donated a further sum to that which Martin had already passed to the club in his lifetime.

Comments made in this Introduction last year are no less relevant for the 2021 season. The incentive to produce a written record of the season is heavily diminished by the prevailing lack of interest in maintaining a scorebook or even entering the team's score on play-cricket.com which now seems to be the repository for club records. That is fine for the 1st XI who are obliged to enter full details of their matches, and should be for the other competing sides in the club but is sometimes overlooked, and is especially true of the 3rd XI. Southgate's records for the Middlesex Development League games are basically non-existent. There is no point in producing tables of averages which are palpably inaccurate, so it really means that only the 1st XI for certain and 2nd XI by and large, are now worth recording year on year. There are consequently no 3rd XI league averages published in this edition for that very reason, as explained later in the publication.

As a result of the above remarks, this may well be the last statistical Annual Review to be published, following a continuous period of over 40 years.

New Nets

A notable feature of the summer was the total refurbishment of the practice nets. This was largely financed by the family of Peter McLoughlin in his memory, who died tragically at the age of 49 in March 2017. Catherine, Christian, William and Richard are pictured on the day of the official opening of the nets on 18th September. The afternoon was celebrated with a family versus club cricket match.

Deaths of club members in 2021

Richard (Dick) Newton died on 2nd February at the age of 75 after a long fight against cancer. He was an attacking batsman having represented South of England Young Cricketers as a schoolboy and was club captain in 1971 and 1972. He had also been a good rugby player with Old Elizabethans, Barnet, having previously captained the school.

Mike Dyson died on 28th March at the age of 88. Mike joined the club in 1954 as a right-arm in-swing bowler, playing until 1970 and was always a regular attender at the annual club dinners. In 1966 he returned the remarkable analysis of 9 for 12 in 10.3 overs in a 2nd XI match against Hertford.

Martin Fletcher died on 19th May aged 92. A well-attended funeral at West Herts Crematorium, Garston was followed by a reception at the Ardmore House Hotel, St Albans. Please see a separate piece on the following page for a fuller appreciation of Martin's life at Southgate Cricket Club.

Martin Fletcher 1928-2021

Martin joined Southgate Cricket Club as a colt in 1942. He graduated to becoming the 1st team scorer and became elected as a player in 1947.

He played for the 1st XI and Extra 1st XI as a left-handed batsman before representing the lower sides in later years and captaining the 2nd XI in 1977-78. He was also a capable wicketkeeper.

He became club secretary in 1961, initially jointly but independently from 1967, until he retired from the post in 1994. Martin became a vice-president in 1968 and was Club President from 1994-1998. He also performed various sub-committee roles over the years and regularly stood as an umpire. His dedication to the club was second to none.

As a young man he played football for Norsemen FC and subsequently became a referee. He played his last cricket match at the age of 77 in the club's 150th anniversary year.

His more notable cricket performances include:

Highest score: 126 not out v Old Citizens, Sunbury 1962 (his only century).

1st wicket 153 (G. Orchard-Lisle 73, M. Fletcher 75) v Old Citizens (h) 1953

2nd wicket 147 (M. Fletcher 81, M. S. Glennie 68) v B.B.C. (a) 1962

2nd wicket 135 (J. J. Conroy 90*, M. Fletcher 65) v Totteridge (a) 1965

6th wicket 109 (P. Wells 125, M. Fletcher 63) 2nd XI v Teddington II (ML) (a) 1977

8th wicket 77 (M. Fletcher 44*, D. G. Schunker 67) v Richmond (h) 1955

9th wicket 63* (M. Fletcher 48*, P. J. Fisher 23* v Hertford (a) 1964

Martin was the first to acknowledge that his role as Honorary Secretary was made considerably easier through the constant support of his wife Jennifer to whom we offer our sincere condolences. Between them they made a huge contribution to the club over several decades.

The 3rd XI failed to maintain batting details for three matches: Harrow Town (away), Acton (away) and Brondesbury (home). Similarly, bowling and fielding details are missing for six matches against Harrow Town (away), Acton (away), Brondesbury (home), North Middlesex (away), Harrow Town (home) and Uxbridge (home). With such a significant amount of information missing, a meaningful set of team averages for the 2021 3rd XI league season is not realistically possible.

In what was a disheartening season invariably played against sides of vastly greater standard, and in the enforced absence of their elected captain, the players remained exceedingly positive, displaying an admirable spirit week after week. There were some notable personal achievements: Sarfaraz Hafeji's 56 to salvage an honourable draw at Highgate and Ankit Patel's 49 not out at home to Twickenham where the opposition held on with nine wickets down. Ankit was the leading all-rounder with 118 runs and 10 wickets while Abhi Atri and Sandeep Chauhan provided support. In the few games he played, Parinda Kularatne could be relied upon to provide a good return with both bat and ball.

Southgate Colts 2021

There was a full outdoor season for the Colts in 2021. Training started at the end of March and league games were played until mid-July. Enthusiasm was such that friendlies were played weekly until September.

Jim Clarke established a weekly session for youngsters aged 5-8 and between 20 and 30 turned out regularly. We are hopeful this will produce the pipeline we need into the older teams. There is still a low number of Under 11s and this team had to be supplemented by over age players to fulfil fixtures. However, there are a few very promising players, such as Nevin Kularatne, Dheer and Harshil Shah, and we can be optimistic about quality if not numbers.

The Under 13s had a large squad with about 25 different players taking part in matches. They had a good season, winning approximately half their matches. Individual performances included a maiden 50 for Daniel Amon and consistent all-round performances from George Bloyce, Anand Ramdial, Kazi Hasan and Akhil Sanapala.

The Under 15s did very well in winning their division. They started the season well, winning the first five games, with good batting performances by Anil Settipalli (196 runs) and Lohit Seera (178 runs). There were also strong bowling performances from Abhishek Kodali, Arthur Bloyce, Jake Flannagan and Pason Rahman. They played as a team and supported each other throughout the entire season.

Special thanks are due to Ashraf Hosein as Head Coach and Jim Clarke as Development Officer and the other coaches who helped with training and games: Parinda Kularatne, Riaan De Villiers, Anandan Arnold, Hemanth Tummala, Lithira Abhayaratne, Shiv-Raj Sharma and Ricky Gunn.

Popular summer camps were also run by Ashraf Hosein and Jim Clarke during the school holidays with assistance from James Dangerfield, Henry Thompson, Scott Ellis, Shrey Parmar and Luke Brett.

The Colts were sponsored by Williamson Dace Brown, local property consultants, for which we are very grateful.
